Extravagance is in the eye of the beholder

When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he told his disciples, “You know that the Passover takes place after two days, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the courtyard of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas, and they conspired to arrest Jesus in a treacherous way and kill him. “Not during the festival,” they said, “so there won’t be rioting among the people.”

Matthew 26:1-5

What Jesus says will happen

While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper...

Matthew 26:6

While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, a woman approached him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume. She poured it on his head as he was reclining at the table.

Matthew 26:6-7

Matthew 26:6-7

Your extravagant sacrifice for Jesus is pleasing to him

Your extravagant sacrifice will look weird to your friends

When the disciples saw it, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked. “This might have been sold for a great deal and given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:8,9

Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for me. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. By pouring this perfume on my body, she has prepared me for burial.”

Matthew 26:10-12

Your extravagant sacrifice will never be wasted

Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for me. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. By pouring this perfume on my body, she has prepared me for burial.”

Matthew 26:10-12

Then one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot (who was about to betray him), said, “Why wasn’t this perfume sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?” He didn’t say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of the money-bag and would steal part of what was put in it.

John 12:4-6

By pouring this perfume on my body,
she has prepared me for burial.

Matthew 26:12

Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.

Matthew 26:13

1. Don't be afraid to let the world know that you are following Christ. Let them see your worship.
