To hear the word without doing it
leads to self-deception

But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

James 1:22

Then Samuel said:

Does the Lord take pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the Lord?

Look: to obey is better than sacrifice, to pay attention is better than the fat of rams.

1 Samuel 15:22

Be careful that you don't forget the LORD your God by failing to keep his commands, ordinances, and statutes that I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 8:11

Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,'
and don't do the things I say?

Luke 6:46

But be doers of the word
and not hearers only,
deceiving yourselves.

James 1:22

Because if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his own face in a mirror. For he looks at himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of person he was.

James 1:23-24

To hear the word and do it leads
to blessing

To hear the word and do it leads to blessing

But the one who looks intently into the perfect law of freedom and perseveres in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer who works—this person will be blessed in what he does.

James 1:25

the Lord Jesus Christ...

James 1:1

To hear the word and do it leads
to blessing

But the one who looks intently into the perfect law of freedom and perseveres in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer who works—this person will be blessed in what he does.

James 1:25

Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and don't do the things I say? I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them: He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the river crashed against that house and couldn't shake it, because it was well built.

Luke 6:46-48

He said, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it.”

Luke 11:28

JUST DO IT.
