CHARLES SPURGEON

1834-1892

Nobody is perfect. We make mistakes. We say wrong things. We do wrong things. We fall. We get up. We learn. We grow.
We move on. We live.

Ephesians 2:17-22

He came and proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So, then, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of God's household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:17-22

In him the whole building, being put together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you are also being built together for God's dwelling in the Spirit.

“Surely you know that if a man can’t be cured of churchgoing, the next best thing is to send him all over the neighborhood looking for the right church to meet his needs. Make this man a “taster” make him a “connoisseur” of churches. They can be a “Taster” make him a critic.”
