For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, then how much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

Romans 5:10

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile everything to himself, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once you were alienated and hostile in your minds expressed in your evil actions. But now he has reconciled you by his physical body through his death, to present you holy, faultless, and blameless before him—

Colossians 1:19-22

- My debt is paid, once and for all
- I am justified (declared righteous)
- I am forgiven (past, present and future sins)
- I am spared from God's wrath
- I am being spiritually healed; one day even my flesh will be replaced with an incorruptible body

- I am spiritually alive
- My judgment has been satisfied and I am at peace with God
- I am cleansed
- I have the power to overcome the enemy
- I am no longer under the curse of the law

- I have been reclaimed from the enemy
- I have been adopted into God's family
- I have been moved from the enemy's kingdom into the kingdom of God
- I have gained the unmerited favor of God
- I have been declared righteous

But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For He Himself is our peace...and He came and preached peace to you who were far away, and peace to those who were near; for through Him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.
