For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:1

After agreeing with the workers on one denarius, he sent them into his vineyard for the day.

Matthew 20:2

When he went out about nine in the morning, he saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. He said to them, 'You also go into my vineyard, and I'll give you whatever is right.' So off they went. About noon and about three, he went out again and did the same thing.

Matthew 20:3-5

Then about five he went and found others standing around and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?' "Because no one hired us,' they said to him. "You also go into my vineyard,' he told them.

Matthew 20:6-7

When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his foreman, 'Call the workers and give them their pay, starting with the last and ending with the first.'

“When those who were hired about five came, they each received one denarius.

Matthew 20:8-9

So, when the first ones came,
they assumed they would get more, but they also received a denarius each.

Matthew 20:10

When they received it, they began to complain to the landowner:
'These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day's work and the burning heat.'

Matthew 20:11-12

“He replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius? Take what’s yours and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you. Don’t I have the right to do what I want with what is mine? Are you jealous because I’m generous?’ “So the last will be first, and the first last.”

Matthew 20:13-16

1. Length of service doesn't determine the degree of reward

2. Position does not determine degree of reward

These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day's work and the burning heat.'

Matthew 20:12

3. God is sovereign in giving rewards

Don't I have the right to do what I want with what is mine?

Matthew 20:15

4. God is generous in giving rewards

Don't I have the right to do what I want with what is mine?

Matthew 20:15

5. Beware of watching other people

Don't I have the right to do what I want with what is mine? Are you jealous because I'm generous?'

Matthew 20:15

But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will tie you and carry you where you don't want to go.”

John 21:18

But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will tie you and carry you where you don't want to go."

John 21:18

Jesus says, "What is that to you? As for you, follow me."

John 21:22

6. There are going to be a lot of surprises in Heaven

But many who are first will be last, and the last first. Matthew 19:30
Then at the end of this parable he says, “So the last will be first and the first will be last.

Matthew 20:16

Whenever I die someday and stand before the Lord, I'm going to have my greatest grief and my greatest joy. My greatest grief is going to be that I did so little for Jesus. My greatest joy is going to be that Jesus has done so much for me
