

A blurred office scene with a central text overlay. The text "GOD AT WORK" is displayed in white, uppercase letters within a dark, rounded rectangular box. Below this box is a solid teal horizontal bar. The background shows an office interior with desks, chairs, and windows, but it is out of focus. The entire graphic is set against a dark blue background with faint, concentric circular lines.

GOD AT WORK

The average American
works 1,791 hours a year

The average American
works 1,791 hours a year

That's 442 hours more than Germans

That's 337 hours less than Mexicans

The average American
works 1,791 hours a year

The hardest working state = North Dakota
The least working state = New Mexico

The average American
works 1,791 hours a year

The hardest working state = North Dakota
The least working state = New Mexico

Michigan = 47th state

And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:17

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

Your work matters to God

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

“The milk maid has as honorable a calling as the preacher.”

-Martin Luther

We work for God

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

God is at work

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

God delights in diligence

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people, knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord. You serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

