Why do we hold back from telling our story?

- I don't have what it takes

You will even be brought before governors and kings because of me, to bear witness to them and to the Gentiles. But when they hand you over, don't worry about how or what you are to say. For you will be given what to say at that hour, because it isn't you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father is speaking through you.

Matthew 10:18-20

Why do we hold back from telling our story?

- I don't have what it takes
- I don't want to impose my beliefs on people

Christianity is one beggar telling another beggar
where he found bread.

D.T. Niles

Why do we hold back from telling our story?

- I don't have what it takes
- I don't want to impose my beliefs on people
- I doubt God could use my story

And he said to them,
“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Matthew 4:19

Why do we hold back from telling our story?

- I don't have what it takes
- I don't want to impose my beliefs on people
- I doubt God could use my story
- It makes me feel uncomfortable

God's plan for enlarging His kingdom is so simple-one person telling another about the Savior...The joy you'll have when you meet that person in heaven will far exceed any discomfort you felt in sharing the gospel.

Charles Stanley

As he was passing by, he saw a man blind from birth.

John 9:1

After he said these things he spit on the ground, made some mud from the saliva, and spread the mud on his eyes. “Go,” he told him, “Wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means “Sent”). So, he left, washed, and came back seeing.

John 9:6-7

His neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar said, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit begging?” Some said, “He’s the one.” Others were saying, “No, but he looks like him.”

He kept saying, “I’m the one.” So, they asked him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

John 9:8-10

He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So, when I went and washed, I received my sight.”

John 9:11

They brought the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees.

John 9:13

Then the Pharisees asked him
again how he received his sight.
“He put mud on my eyes,” he told them. “I washed and I can see.”

John 9:15

Again, they asked the blind man,
“What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?”

John 9:17

So, a second time they summoned
the man who had been blind...

John 9:24

He answered, “Whether or not he’s a sinner, I don’t know. One thing I do know: I was blind, and now I can see!”

John 9:25

My life before I met Jesus

I was blind... John 9:25

How I met Jesus

“The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So when I went and washed I received my sight.”

John 9:11

“I believe, Lord!” he said, and he worshiped him.

John 9:38

My life since I met Jesus

I was blind, and now I can see!

John 9:25

Three Challenges

- Let God write your story

Be ready at any time to give a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you.

1 Peter 3:15

Three Challenges

- Let God write your story
- Compose your story

Three Challenges

- Let God write your story
- Compose your story
- Ask God for opportunities to share your story

For “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him?

And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him?

And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them?

Romans 10:13-14
