Repent =

What is a disciple?

Who are you going to follow?

Questions to ask...

1. Read Matthew 4:17. What does the word "repent" mean to you, and why do you think it was the first message Jesus preached?
2. How does the message "the kingdom of heaven has come near" impact the way we live our lives today?
3. What areas of your life might need repentance, and how can recognizing the nearness of God's kingdom help you make those changes?
4. How can we help others understand the importance of repentance in light of the kingdom of heaven?
5. What do you think Jesus meant when he said, "Follow me"? How can we apply this command in our everyday lives?
6. How does Jesus' call to "follow me" challenge the way you view your current priorities or lifestyle?
7. In what areas of your life do you feel called to follow Jesus more closely?
8. What do you think it looks like to "fish for people" today? What are some practical ways we can engage in this mission?
