Questions to think about...

1. Have you ever owned something valuable that was destroyed, worn out, or stolen? How did that experience affect you?
2. Read Matthew 6:19-21. Jesus isn't promoting a lifestyle of poverty. What do you think he means by "storing up"?
3. What are some "earthly treasures" you find yourself tempted to chase, and how do they affect your relationship with God?
4. What does it mean to "store up treasures in heaven," and how can we do this daily?
5. How does the way we handle money, and possessions reflect where our heart is?
6. What practical steps can we take to shift our focus from material things to eternal values?"
7. What challenges make it difficult for you to trust God to meet your needs rather than relying on material security?
8. How can we use the resources we've been given to glorify God and help others?
9. When you think about your "treasure," what is the connection between what you value most and where your heart truly lies?
10. What practical steps can you take this week to invest in "treasures in heaven"?
