Questions to think about...

1. Read Matthew 6:22-23. If you had to describe this passage in your own words, how would you explain it?
2. What do you think Jesus means when He says the eye is the lamp of the body?
3. If gaining wealth was your main focus, how would that shape your thoughts, emotions, and actions?
4. In Jewish thought, a "bad eye" often referred to greed or envy. How do greed and envy darken a person's life?
5. In contrast, a "healthy eye" was associated with generosity and singleness of heart. How does generosity fill a person's life with light?
6. Jesus contrasts a healthy eye with a bad eye—what are some practical examples of each in daily life?
7. How can we train our eyes to focus on what brings light rather than darkness?
8. Is there a habit, mindset, or desire you need to surrender to God to regain spiritual clarity?
9. Take a moment to pray and ask God to give you spiritual eyes that see clearly, focusing on His truth and goodness.
