Questions to ask...

1. Have you ever struggled with unanswered prayer?
2. Read Matthew 7:7-12. Jesus commands us to continue to ask, seek, and knock. How does this passage shape your idea of prayer?
3. How does this passage challenge the way you approach prayer—especially when dealing with difficult relationships?
4. In verses 9-11, Jesus compares God to a loving Father. How does this comparison impact how we view prayer?
5. What are some examples of "good gifts" God gives His children? How does this contrast with what we sometimes ask for?
6. How does seeing God as a loving Father encourage you to pray more boldly and persistently?
7. In what areas of your life do you need to be more persistent in seeking God's wisdom?
8. Matthew 7:12, known as The Golden Rule, sums up the Law and the Prophets. How does this connect to the previous verses about prayer?
9. How would relationships change if we truly applied "do to others what you would have them do to you" in daily life?
10. What are some specific ways you can put the Golden Rule into practice this week?
