

Kingdom Living
Beware of the Imitation

Matthew 7:15-23

April 6, 2025

Questions to Think About

Watch out! You are _____ by false teachers

Evaluate their _____ by what it _____

What kind of fruit should we look for?

False teachers are identified by the fruit of their _____

False teachers are identified by the fruit of their _____

False teachers are identified by the fruit of their _____

Application

Know your _____

Test the things you hear with _____

Be _____ without being _____

1. Have you ever believed someone or something that seemed true at first but later proved harmful?
2. Why do you think people are often drawn to false teachers or unhealthy spiritual influences?
3. Read Matthew 7:15-23. How would you describe a “false prophet” in today’s world?
4. Why do you think Jesus says false prophets come in “sheep’s clothing”?
5. What does it mean that “you will know them by their fruits”?
6. Can someone have impressive spiritual gifts or ministries and still be a false teacher?
7. What kinds of “fruit” should we be looking for in spiritual leaders—and in ourselves?
8. What role does Scripture play in helping us discern true and false teaching?
9. How can we avoid becoming judgmental while still being discerning?
10. What kind of “fruit” is growing in your life right now?