Questions to think about

1. When you think about recognizing someone's voice (family, friend, public figure), what makes it so easy to identify?
2. Read John 10:1-18. What stands out to you about the relationship between the shepherd and the sheep?
3. Jesus says His sheep hear His voice. What do you think that looks like in everyday life, not in theory, but practically?
4. What are some of the "voices" that most often shape your thoughts, decisions, or reactions during the week? (pressure, fear, comfort, busyness, etc.)
5. How can you tell the difference between the voice of Jesus and other voices in your life?
6. Can you think of a recent moment where you sensed God nudging you to do something? Did you respond, or hesitate? What happened?
7. What do you think helps someone grow in recognizing the voice of Jesus over time?
8. What is one specific way you sense Jesus asking you to respond this week?
9. What would it look like to take that step in the next 48 hours?
