Questions to think about

1. When you picture Jesus washing the disciples' feet in John 13, what stands out to you the most, and why do you think that detail matters?
2. Why do you think foot washing was such a shocking thing for Jesus to do in that culture?
3. The sermon talked about how we tend to "live at the center." Where do you see that show up most in your everyday life?
4. Think about this week, when was a moment you had the opportunity to serve but didn't? What held you back in that moment?
5. Jesus washed the feet of people who would fail Him, even Judas. Who in your life is hardest to serve right now? Why?
6. What does it look like for you to depend on God (not just try harder) in this area?
7. What kinds of everyday moments in your home or work are opportunities for you to "pick up the towel"?
8. What is one specific, intentional act of service you sense God leading you to take this week? Who is it for, and when will you do it?
