Questions to think about

1. When you face a major decision, what tends to influence you most: your feelings, circumstances, advice from others, or Scripture?
2. How can we be open to the Spirit's leading while also being careful not to confuse our own thoughts and feelings with God's direction?
3. What are some ways we can tell whether a decision or direction is helping us become more like Jesus?
4. Where might the Holy Spirit be showing you an attitude, habit, or behavior that needs to change? What would taking a step of obedience look like?
5. Why do we sometimes ask God for guidance when He has already made His will clear in Scripture?
6. What decision are you facing, or have you faced recently, where you needed God's wisdom? How might prayer, Scripture, and wise Christian counsel help?
7. Is there an area of your life where you know what God says, but you're struggling to follow through? What's making obedience difficult?
8. What is one specific step of obedience you believe you need to take this week?
