Questions to think about

1. When you find yourself getting impatient, angry, or frustrated, what's your usual response?
2. Read Galatians 5:16–18. What do you think it looks like to walk by the Spirit in everyday life?
3. What does that inner conflict teach us about why we need the Holy Spirit?
4. Is there an area of your life where you know God wants you to grow, but you've been reluctant to change? What makes that area difficult to surrender?
5. Read Galatians 5:19–23. What stands out to you about the contrast between the works of the flesh and the fruit of the Spirit?
6. Which aspect of the fruit of the Spirit is most challenging for you right now? What might it look like for the Spirit to grow that quality in you this week?
7. When the Holy Spirit shows you something in your life that needs to change, how can you respond in a way that takes sin seriously without giving up in discouragement?
8. What is one situation where you will need to depend on the Holy Spirit rather than simply react out of frustration, fear, or selfishness?
