Questions to think about

1. Read John 14:15–18. What do you think Jesus wanted His disciples to understand about the Holy Spirit through this promise?
2. How does knowing that God has not left you change the way you face an ordinary day?
3. Jesus calls the Holy Spirit the “Helper” or “Counselor.” Where do you most need God’s help right now, not just in a crisis, but in the ordinary stuff of life?
4. Read Romans 8:9 and 1 Corinthians 6:19–20. What do these verses teach about the Holy Spirit’s presence in the life of a Christian?
5. How does that challenge the idea that some Christians have the Holy Spirit while others are somehow “more spiritual”?
6. Read John 16:13–14. Jesus says the Holy Spirit will glorify Him. What does that tell us about what the Spirit wants to accomplish in our lives? What might it look like practically for the Spirit to point your attention back to Jesus this week?
7. Read Romans 8:11. The same Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in those who belong to Christ. As you think about your life this week, what is one situation where you need to remember, “I am not alone; God lives in me,” and respond differently because of it?
