Questions to think about

1. What are some ways you see the brokenness of this world in everyday life? How does the promise that God will one day make everything right give you hope?
2. Why do you think we sometimes expect life to be easier when we're following Jesus?
3. Read Romans 8:18–23. How does this passage help us understand the place of suffering in the Christian life?
4. How does knowing that God has already begun His work in us, but hasn't finished it yet, give us hope as we face life today?
5. Read Romans 8:26. How does knowing that the Spirit helps us when we don't know what to pray, change the way you think about prayer? What might it look like to depend on the Spirit rather than feeling pressure to find the right words?
6. Read Romans 8:26–27. How might this truth change the way you approach prayer when you're confused, discouraged, or facing something you don't understand?
7. Romans 8:34 reminds us that Jesus is interceding for us, while Romans 8:26 tells us that the Holy Spirit intercedes for us. What encouragement do you find in knowing that both the Son and the Spirit are at work on your behalf?
8. What's one situation in your life right now where you need to keep praying, even though you don't know exactly what to say or how things will turn out?
